

ECS Conference 2021

Copyright Challenges During the Pandemic (and Beyond)

Date: Friday, 21 May 2021, 15:00-17:45 hrs.
Location: ZOOM session (log-in details will be shared one day in advance)
Registration:

Programme

Welcome

Prof. Martin Senftleben, ECS, University of Amsterdam

14:50-15:00

Income Prospects of Authors and Performers

Chair: Prof. Estelle Derclaye, ECS, University of Nottingham

15:00-16:00

- 15:00-15:10 Copyright Contract Law – Harmonization and National Experiences
Prof. Bernt Hugenholtz, ECS, University of Amsterdam
- 15:10-15:20 Appropriate and Proportionate Remuneration
Prof. Raquel Xalabarder, ECS, Universitat Oberta de Catalunya
- 15:20-15:30 Non-Use and Reversion Rights
Prof. Martin Kretschmer, ECS, University of Glasgow
- 15:30-15:40 Revenue Streams for Performers and Impact of Human Rights After CJEU, RAAP
Prof. Valérie-Laure Benabou, ECS, Aix-Marseille Université, and
Prof. Ole-Andreas Rognstad, ECS, University of Oslo
- 15:40-16:00 Discussion

BREAK

16:10-17:40

Use for Educational, Research and Expressive Purposes

Chair: Prof. Martin Senftleben, ECS, University of Amsterdam

- 16:10-16:20 Digital Distance Education – the Hungarian Emergency Law
Prof. Péter Mezei, University of Szeged
- 16:20-16:30 E-lending – Problems and Solutions
Prof. Séverine Dusollier, ECS, Sciences Po
- 16:30-16:40 Lecture Recordings – the UK Controversy
Prof. Lionel Bently, ECS, University of Cambridge
- 16:40-16:50 Discussion

- 16:50-17:00 Text-and-Data Mining – New EU Legislation
Prof. Tatiana Synodinou, ECS, University of Cyprus
- 17:10-17:20 Text-and-Data Mining – New Interpretative Framework
Prof. Alain Strowel, ECS, UCLouvain and Université Saint-Louis
- 17:20-17:30 Platform Liability and Freedom of Expression: The Article 17 CDSMD
Challenge in CJEU, Poland
Prof. Christophe Geiger, ECS, University of Strasbourg
- 17:30-17:40 Discussion
- 17:40-17:45 Closing